Administration & Staff Report
January 11, 2022

Happy new year to everyone!

Thank you to Home and School for organizing the two hot lunches for the children that chose to participate ,the craft fair and the in-school book fair. All of these events were very successful.

Thank you for the book donation to our Christmas baskets.

We have been busy since our last meeting.

The Enrichment exam for grade 6 students was written and the letters of acceptance will go out on January 14th from all high schools.

We had a school wide pizza lunch and daycare had a pancake breakfast in December.

The in school vaccination went really well, the second one is scheduled for February 4th.

There were 3 winners for the door decorating contest- Mme Marie-Eve, Mme. Kayla and Mme. Louise/Ms. Selina's classes.

Of course PJ day was fantastic.

School ended 1 day early and we sent home rapid tests with each student.

Report cards will now be available to parents on the 11th of February as per the government's new timeline.

The February 2nd Ped day is being moved to February 10th. No school for students and Daycare is closed.
