3.6 Governing Board: Claudia Carpanzano

- Nothing to report - Was not present at the meeting.

4. Coordinators4.1 Fundraising: Maria Ligon & Kathryn Potvin

- Big Box: This new greeting card fundraiser was approved by governing board and will roll out after spring break.
- Mauve Bonbon: We would like to have this as a spring fundraiser. Prices vary from $7-10 for the containers. We will receive 30% of the sales. All purchases are made online and then delivered to then school.
 - o Motion by Kathryn to have a Mauve Bonbon fundraiser around April/May.
Seconded by Maria.
All in favour, 0 opposed, 0 abstentions VOTE PASSES
- Spirit Wear: The Invoice has been sent. The did not charge us for the setup fees, as compensation for some of the struggles we had. We would like to use him again and send out another run before the end of the year. Total profit from the campaign was $680. We could have a spirit wear table during shop fest.
- Macmillan's: There is still an unclaimed order for $25

4.2 Playground: Thomas Desmeules (Given by Sandy)

- The paint, stencils and equipment still need to be drop off.
- Most items are on hold until the asphalt is redone in the spring.

4.3 Hot Lunch: Tara Cheevers

- We have already had two hot days.
 - o 1st lunch: 187 meals (51 members, 132 non-members & 4 identified families). There were a few small issues that were easy to resolve. We did receive many late orders. Total amount received $1,732.50; invoice amount $1,505.00; Total profit $227.50.
 - o 2nd lunch: 100 meals (31 members, 66 non-members, 4 identified families & 6 teachers). This once went much smoother than the first, with little to no issues. Total amount received $957; invoice amount$874; Total profit $83.
- The next hot lunch will be after spring break, considering there are many children absent.

4.4 Pizza Day: Nitasha Kenemy & Kristina Goodwin (Given by Jodie)

- The orders are still being compiled and will have more information next meeting. We did however receive many late orders. There was one parent that paid twice in error and instead of receiving a reimbursement asked that we use the additional funds to buy pizza and TCBY for two children for March to June.

4.5 Antibullying: Melanie Sams (Given by Jodie)

- Will be a virtual event this year.
- There was a lot of issues with distributing the pink shirt order forms. There was a total of 40 orders. As soon as the shirts are received, they will be brought to the school.
- An Executive vote was done because the supplier didn't have any size small shirts. We decided to replace the size small with medium. They families will be contacted and if they do not want the larger size, we will issue a reimburse and re-sell the shirts next year.
 - o Executive vote: Motion by Jodie to replace the size small pink shirt orders with size medium. Seconded by Maria.

*All in favour, 0 opposed, 0 abstentions *VOTE PASSES**

4.6 TSAW: Tara Cheevers

- The theme will be "You can't Mask our appreciation"
- There are only 3 days for TSAW this year.
- Donation request letter will be sent out this week.

Administration and Staff Report
February 1, 2022

Happy February

We had our virtual open house and there were about 24 families that attended

The past few weeks have been registration and we are full once again in our 4 and 5 year old kindergarten groups.

Report cards will be available February 11 in Mozaik on the parent portal

The ped day that was on February 2nd has been moved to February 10th no school and daycare is closed

Pilo polo has started for our grade 1 and 2 students at lunch time.

Our grade 3 and up are enjoying the snow shoes and cross country skis that Home and School purchased for us last year. Grade 4 is getting the opportunity to go to the trails off of d'ile because of the free busing from skier d'ile

Field trips and extra-curricular activities have been given the green light once again.
