EDGEWATER HOME & SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

JANUARY

A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

Welcome back! I hope your holidays were merry & bright! I would like to take a moment to wish you and your families a very Happy New Year filled with peace, love & joy always!

Despite my best intentions to get the December newsletter out, the month got away from me much quicker than expected. Regretfully, I missed the opportunity to express my delight & gratitude for December. Briefly, I would like to thank once again all the incredible volunteers, coordinators, donators, and supporters for making the craft fair another great success! It was so nice to see so many past, present (& future) Edgewater families that day. Also, thank you to Jodie & Kim for organizing a great holiday social.

As the kids get back to the books, Home & School will be back to planning & organizing for the rest of the school year. Lots will be happening between now & June. Our first meeting for 2018 will be Tuesday January 9th at 7:00pm. I hope you can join us!

Our first event will be taking place on Sunday January 28th. "Born to Read" will be held in the gym that afternoon from 2pm to 4pm. It is a great way to introduce the love of reading to babies born in 2017 within our community as well as encouraging Edgewater families to "Unplug & Play" for a couple of hours.

Stay tuned for our animating Spring fundraiser. Incorporating this year's school theme of "Colors", we have collaborated with "Budding Artists" to offer keepsakes personalized with our children's unique works of art.

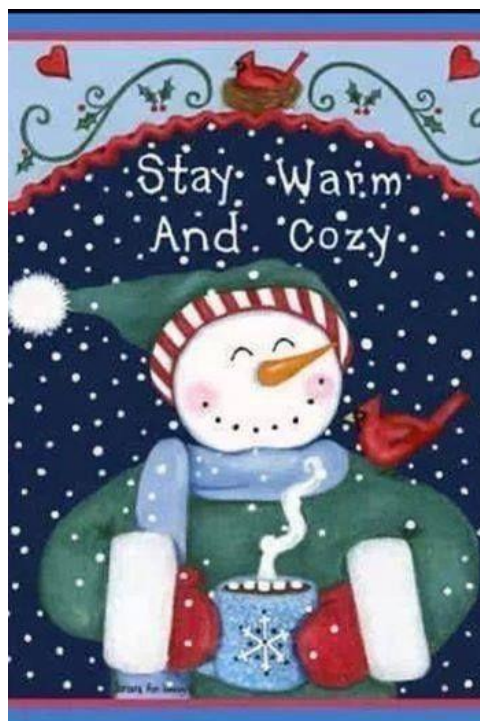

Do not forget "Fundscrip" is on going and you can purchase/order your cards anytime online. Please refer to the document attached to this newsletter for more details! Happy January & stay warm ;)
